

David Cline

Partner

Overview

David (DC) counsels growth-stage companies and investment entities on structuring, restructuring, and governance. Also: buying, selling, and raising capital. Also: incentive programs for service providers, succession, and intergenerational planning – DC assists clients with just about all kinds of transactions. He also frequently speaks at local entrepreneurial events and is a mentor at Galvanize Boulder. DC previously worked at a full service, multi-state law firm. Born and bred in Silicon Valley, he has a passion for entrepreneurship. DC has co-founded multiple ventures, including Spark Boulder, a non-profit student entrepreneurial lab.

Education

- University of Colorado School of Law, Juris Doctor (J.D.), 2012; Entrepreneurial Certificate; Journal on Telecommunications and High Technology Law; Member, Student Fee Committee and SBA Finance Board; Student Attorney and Student Manager, Entrepreneurial Law Clinic
- Loyola Marymount University, Bachelor of Arts (B.A.), 2007; Member, Magis Service Organization; Beta Theta Pi Fraternity; The National Society of Collegiate Scholars; Alpha Sigma Nu Jesuit Honors Society; and Pi Sigma Alpha National Political Science Honors Society

Related News

EVENT

March 29, 2019
2019 Venture Law Summit

decline@michaelbest.com

Broomfield

T. 303.500.1441

Legal Assistant

Yili Cao

ycao@michaelbest.com

T. 414.270.2728